JOYCE PETERSON IS HEADED FOR THE SLOPES

The slopes of Wisconsin, that is!

Joyce Peterson crossed country searching for a hospital like University Hospitals, Madison. She found perfect conditions for professional performance in our modern, 700-bed teaching and research hospital. Now Joyce sets a lively, fast pace in our cardiac intensive care unit—her choice from 24 nursing specialties.

Joyce loves the warm people, opportunities for further education and expert team effort at University Hospitals. On a crisp, clear day she likes to ski on any of Wisconsin's 50 slopes. But any day, Joyce Peterson loves to nurse at University Hospitals. It's a lift.

Schuss to University Hospitals, Madison, Wisconsin.

We are an equal opportunity employer.

STEP INTO CHANGE WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN MEDICAL CENTER

Times have changed and nursing is changing, so we ask our nurses to give us on-the-job ideas to keep up with these changes. We ask for fresh thinking about specifics like "walking rounds, unit-dosage, concurrent charting, current ladder developments, research and pilot studies".

A hospital is as good as its nurses; we ask our nurses to make University Hospital a pioneer in advance nursing. Join us and bring your ideas.

Geriatric ward: Night

A white-clad warden prowls the reaches of dim-lit corridors,
 keys chinking softly in deep pockets,
 soles whispering,
 ears sorting out the early A.M. sounds:

whimpered cries,
 punctured snores . . .

The mind ponders but the heart wonders:

In dreams, do the aged and crooked hands reach out,
 straight and strong again, toward some elusive springtime? Do the wasted limbs become firm-fleshed once more, running eagerly into a lover's arms?

Are the restless cries

of joy or pain (or both) born of the complexities of life
 when it was truly lived and not a prison called Infirmary?

Does the prison day,
 stretching from dawn to dawn,
 hold only the hope that the trays may not be late,
 that the guards may be kind today,
 and that someone—someone!—may come from that remembered
 past to tell the prisoner who he is?

Because EVAC-U-GEN has a mild laxative action and tends to cause the stool to be soft — it is highly desirable for those sensitive to harsh laxatives — particularly children, pregnant women, and geriatric patients. Recommend EVAC-U-GEN for the management of functional constipation. It is highly effective. Non-gripping. Chewable. Very palatable. Economical.
